~ FLINT REGIONAL CHAPTER ~

When you join SCI - Flint Regional Chapter, you become a better-informed hunter and conservationist... and your dues work to protect your rights to hunt wherever in the world you go. SCI is the organization that cares about responsible hunting and conservation... and does something about it. As a member, your benefits include:

Conventions:

International, National, Chapter and Youth members can mingle with worldwide hunters, celebrities, outfitters, guides, taxidermists, outdoor writers and people just like you at SCI's annual hunters' conventions.

Credentials:

All SCI members receive handsome window and luggage decals and a wallet-sized membership card.

Hunter Protection:

Through our office in Washington, D.C. and our Governmental Affairs programs, SCI actively works to protect hunters' rights and interests around the world.

Recognition:

International, National, Chapter and Youth members are eligible to enter their trophies into SCI's Record Book of Trophy Animals and to participate in the Medallion Program, Major Awards, Grand Slams and Inner Circle Achievement programs.

Reports:

All SCI members get the facts and figures on where to go for that special hunting trip. Through special publications, updates on important hunting issues and reports from guides and outfitters around the world, SCI will keep you informed.

Publications:

SCI members annually receive six beautiful issues of the incomparable Safari Magazine. In addition, North American and International chapter members receive twelve issues of the information-packed Safari Times newspaper. SCI's renowned full-color magazine is devoted to worldwide big game hunting. Read about exciting hunting expeditions written by the hunter for the hunter. Get legislative updates on issues affecting your hunting privileges, conservation and education reports, global hunting reports and shooting sports information. Safari Magazine and Safari Times keep you informed and entertained.

Flint Regional Chapter Membership Highlights:

- Annual Fundraiser and Wild Game Dinner.
- Eligible for hunting honors at Annual Awards Banquet.
- Membership meetings with outfitters and conservation representatives.
- Quarterly newsletters from Flint chapter.
- Awards Banquet and Christmas Banquet both provided at no charge for member and guest.
